

ANONYMOUS 17227 - New submission from Early Years Strategy - Public Submissions

We need better conditions for childcare workers and better access for families to local centres. Everyone I know with babies in my local area are struggling to get daycare, despite being on over 10 waiting lists since conception. Unless they call every day and practically beg, they don't even get a response.