

ANONYMOUS 17469 - New submission from Early Years Strategy - Public Submissions

Please pay our early educators more, they do a tremendous job and are fundamental to the early development of our children. They need to be respected for the job they do, as children under 5 are physically and emotionally draining.